Inc. is a small company with just 15 employees located in Florida. Hank, the store owner, has provided excellent health benefits to the store's workforce. Nash, long-time employees, will soon be reaching age 65 and eligible for Medicare. Nash is in good health. He intends to remain an active full-time employee, working becoming eligible for Medicare. What type(s) of retiree health benefit will Hank's Fish Store be able to offer Nash?

- ☐ a. A MSA plan that includes prescription drug coverage.
- ☐ b. A PACE plan.
- ☐ c. Hank's can only offer the same plan it provides to its employees who are not Medicare eligible.
- ☒ d. Hank's can continue to offer Nash the same employee health benefit plan, or, if Nash enrolls in Medicare Part B, it can enroll him in a Medicare Advantage plan that is offered to the public.

✓ Correct: Employers with less than 20 employees (as calculated under Medicare secondary payor rules) may be able to offer Medicare Advantage plans to their active employees and their dependents. Larger firms cannot offer such plans. In many cases, this helps small businesses save on health coverage costs since Medicare becomes the primary payor.

Question 3

Correct

Gary Summers is enrolled in Ajax Medicare Advantage plan. Gary has recently faced a series of health issues leading to substantial out-of-pocket expenses. Gary understands that in Original Medicare (Parts A and B) there is no annual out-of-pocket maximum. He asks you if the same is true of his Medicare Advantage plan? How do you respond?

- ☐ a. Like Original Medicare, Medicare Advantage plans have no out-of-pocket annual limits. To help with uncovered medical expenses, Gary should consider hospital indemnity insurance.
- ☒ b. All Medicare Advantage (MA) plans must have a "maximum out-of-pocket" limit (known as "MOOP") for Part A and Part B benefits. Once the MA plan member pays a specified amount of cost-sharing that health plan pays 100 percent of the medical services covered.
- ☐ c. Like Original Medicare, Medicare Advantage plans have no out-of-pocket annual limits. To help with uncovered medical expenses, Gary should consider his family's medical history and investigate a specified disease insurance policy.
- ☐ d. All Medicare Advantage (MA) plans must have a "maximum out-of-pocket" limit (known as "MOOP") for Part A and Part B benefits. Once the MA plan member pays a specified amount of cost-sharing that health plan pays 80 percent of the medical services covered.

✓ Correct: All Medicare Advantage (MA) plans must have a "maximum out-of-pocket" limit (known as "MOOP") for Part A and Part B benefits. Once the MA plan member pays a specified amount of cost-sharing that health plan pays 100 percent of the medical services covered. Each year CMS specifies a mandatory MOOP, which health plans cannot exceed, although they may have a lower MOOP.

Question 7
Correct

Mr. Hardin is interested in the Medicare Advantage (MA) PPO plan that you represent. It is one of three plans operated by the same organization in Mr. Hardin's area. The MA PPO plan does not include drug coverage, but the other two plans do. Mr. Hardin likes the PPO plan that does not include drug coverage and intends to obtain his drug coverage through a stand-alone Medicare prescription drug plan. What should you tell him about this situation?

- ☒ a. He could enroll either in one of the MA plans that include prescription drug coverage or Original Medicare with a Medigap plan and standalone Part D prescription drug coverage, but he cannot enroll in the MA-only PPO plan and a stand-alone prescription drug plan.
- ☐ b. He could enroll in the MA-only plan and purchase a Medigap plan with drug coverage.
- ☐ c. He could enroll in the MA-only PPO plan and a stand-alone Medicare prescription drug plan.
- ☐ d. He cannot enroll in a stand-alone prescription drug plan because you do not represent such a plan.

✓ Correct: If a beneficiary enrolls in an MA PPO plan that does not include Part D coverage, the beneficiary cannot join a stand-alone Prescription Drug Plan (PDP).

Question 13
Correct

Conrad is 64, retiring soon, and considering enrollment in his employer-sponsored MA retiree group health plan that includes drug coverage with nominal copays. He heard about a neighbor's MA-PD plan that you represent and because he takes numerous prescription drugs, he is considering signing up for it. What should you tell him?

- ☐ a. When possible, it is always the best option to have both the employer's plan and the MA-PD, so he would have no out-of-pocket expenses.
- ☐ b. Generally, employers prefer retirees to enroll in a stand-alone PDP, so he should consider that instead of the MA-PD.
- ☒ c. He should compare the benefits in his employer-sponsored retiree group health plan with the benefits in his neighbor's MA-PD plan to determine which one will provide sufficient coverage for his prescription needs.
- ☐ d. Generally, employers prefer retirees to have both the retiree group plan and the MA-PD plan to fill in the gaps, but they would be better off with just the MA-PD plan.

✓ Correct: The type of Medicare Advantage plans offered vary by employers. Therefore, beneficiaries should compare their employer's retiree plan with other available plan options.

Question 14
Correct

Mrs. McCarty is in good health, uses a single prescription, and lives independently in her own home. She is attracted by the idea of maintaining control over a Medical Savings Account (MSA) but is not sure if the plan associated with the account will fit her needs. What specific piece of information about a Medicare MSA plan would it be important for her to know, before enrolling in such a plan?

- ☒ a. All MSAs cover Part A and Part B benefits, but not Part D prescription drug benefits, which could be obtained by enrolling in a separate prescription drug plan.
- ☐ b. For enrollees in an MSA, after the annual deductible is met, the MSA plan generally pays 75% of the services covered.
- ☐ c. All beneficiaries enrolled in an MSA set aside the MSA funds on a pre-tax basis in addition to paying their Part B premium.
- ☐ d. MSA enrollees may only receive covered health care services from a limited panel of network providers because otherwise, some providers may charge more than Original Medicare rates.

✓ Correct: MSA enrollees must enroll in a stand-alone prescription drug plan (PDP) if they want prescription drug benefits.

Question 15
Correct

Mr. Maddox is considering a Medicare Advantage HMO and has questions about his ability to access providers. What should you tell him?

- ☐ a. Mr. Maddox will be able to obtain routine care outside of the plan's service area but will pay a higher co-payment (except in an emergency).
- ☐ b. With any Medicare Advantage HMO, Mr. Maddox will be able to see any provider he likes, so long as that provider participates in Original Medicare.
- ☒ c. In most Medicare Advantage HMOs, Mr. Maddox must generally obtain his services only from providers within the plan's network (except in an emergency or where care is unavailable within the network).
- ☐ d. In Medicare Advantage HMO plans, services provided by primary care physicians are covered at 100%, but those of specialists are covered at 80%.

✓ Correct: In most Medicare Advantage HMOs, generally, an enrollee must obtain services only from providers within the plan's network, otherwise known as participating providers. An exception is made for emergency care.

Question 16
Correct

Peter Miller heads a local association of medical professionals – Better Health. The association has many members who are retired or approaching retirement age. Peter comes to you for advice as to whether the association can establish an employer group waiver plan (EGWP) for these members. What do you say?

- ☐ a. No, the association cannot establish an EGWP, but it can form a direct contract plan with a specific medical facility to provide services to its Medicare eligible members.
- ☐ b. Yes, the association can establish an EGWP for its older members because of their eligibility for Original Medicare, Part A.
- ☐ c. Yes, the association can establish an EGWP for its members because they all share medical expertise.
- ☒ d. No, Better Health is a professional association whose membership is based on their profession, not an individual employer or former employer.

✓ Correct: A professional association, such as a state medical association, may not offer an EGWP because membership in the association is based on profession, not an individual member's employer or former employer. In contrast, an association of employer, such as school boards, may offer its former employees an EGWP plan because it would be an "employment-based" plan.

Question 18
Correct

Mrs. Waller is a retiree with substantial income. She is enrolled in an MA-PD plan and was disappointed with the service she received from her primary care physician because she was told she would have to wait five weeks to get an appointment when she was feeling ill. She called you to ask what she could do so she would not have to put up with such poor access to care. What could you tell her?

- ☐ a. She must write to the plan and wait for a response and then, if she is still dissatisfied, she could file an appeal with her state Medicaid office requesting a transfer to one of its managed care plans.
- ☐ b. She should not expect to get in to see her doctor any more quickly since she is a Medicare patient.
- ☐ c. She should call the doctor's office to complain since the plan cannot do anything about the doctor's schedule.
- ☒ d. She could file a grievance with her plan to complain about the lack of timeliness in getting an appointment.

✓ Correct: Enrollees or their representatives may file a grievance if they experience problems with their health care services, such as timeliness, appropriateness, access to, and/or setting of a provided health service, procedure, or item.
