Question 3

Correct

If you are to comply with Medicare's guidance regarding educational events, which of the following would be acceptable activities?

☐ a. You may ask passers-by to provide you with their names, addresses, and phone numbers so that you can contact them later with information about the plan(s) you represent.

☐ b. You may have a stack of enrollment forms on the table in your booth but may only pass them out to individuals who request one.

☐ c. You may discuss plan-specific premiums and benefits.

☒ d. You may distribute business cards to individuals who request information on how to contact you for further details on the plan(s) you represent.

✓ Correct: At educational events, marketing representatives are permitted to distribute business cards and contact information for individuals to initiate contact.

Question 4

Correct

Kevin Xiong is a relatively new agent who has come to you for advice as to what he can do during the Medicare Advantage Open Enrollment Period (MA-OEP). What advice should you give Kevin?

☐ a. During the MA-OEP Kevin can purchase a list of individuals who have chosen MA plans during the Annual Enrollment Period (AEP) and create a marketing plan aimed at targeting them to select a plan he sells.

☒ b. During the MA-OEP, Kevin can have one-on-one meetings with beneficiaries who have requested such meetings.

✓ Correct: During the MA-OEP, those enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan have the opportunity to change plans or enroll in Original Medicare. Marketing representatives may respond to beneficiary requests for one-on-one meetings.

☐ c. During the MA-OEP Kevin can send unsolicited print materials to seniors in his area advertising the opportunity to change from one MA plan to another.

☐ d. During the MA-OEP Kevin can make unsolicited calls to former enrollees who have selected a new plan during the Annual Enrollment Period (AEP).

Question 5

Correct

Agent Ethan Murphy has properly set up a sales appointment to meet with client John Cook at Agent Murphy's office. At the agreed upon appointment time, Mr. Cook arrives with his elderly neighbor - Clara Burton, who wants to learn about her Medicare Advantage options. What should Agent Ethan Murphy do?

☐ a. Execute a scope of appointment (SOA) with Clara and establish an appointment to meet with her in one week while keeping the agreed appointment with John.

☐ b. Inform both John Cook and Clara Burton that two separate appointments must be scheduled no sooner than two days (48 hours) from now on different days and times.

☒ c. After executing a scope of appointment (SOA) with Clara Burton, meet with John Cook and Clara Burton to discuss their Medicare Advantage options.

✓ Correct: Agents no longer need to wait 48 hours after completion of a scope of appointment for a personal marketing appointment. Scope of appointments must simply be completed prior to a personal marketing appointment.

☐ d. Meet with John Cook and inform Clara that she must immediately leave his office.

Question 6

Correct

Brad is new to the Medicare marketplace, having previously been focused on life insurance and disability income protection products. He intends to conduct an educational seminar during the AEP at a local hotel and then invite those who attend a subsequent marketing meeting to discuss the benefits of next year's plans. How would you advise Brad?

- ☐ a. Brad should conduct the education seminar as an early morning meeting and the marketing meeting on the following day in the late afternoon so that there are at least 12 hours between the two meetings.
- ☐ b. Brad must book the marketing meeting in an adjacent building at least one week after the educational seminar.
- ☒ c. Brad should book the marketing meeting in the same hotel on the same day 1 hour apart. Those attending the educational session must be notified that it will be concluding and a marketing event will begin shortly with sufficient time to leave prior to the start of the marketing session.
- ☐ d. Brad should conduct the educational seminar as a breakfast meeting and the marketing meeting in the same hotel at least 24 hours later, offering a full meal to those attending.

✔ Correct: Marketing events may be held in the same space after an educational event. Attendees need only be informed that the educational event has ended and given ample time to leave before the marketing event begins. Marketing events are no longer prohibited from taking place within 12 hours of an educational event in the same location. Scheduling the meetings 1 hour apart in the same hotel should provide ample time for attendees to leave the educational event before the marketing event begins.

Question 7
Correct

You would like to market an MA plan at a neighborhood pharmacy. What should you keep in mind to comply with the marketing requirements for MA plans?

- ☐ a. You must set up your table, make marketing presentations, and accept enrollment applications near the pharmacy counter where people wait for their prescriptions.
- ☐ b. You must set up your table and make marketing presentations only in common areas, but you may accept enrollment applications anywhere in the pharmacy.
- ☒ c. You must set up your table, make marketing presentations, and accept enrollment applications only in common areas outside of where the patient waits for services from the pharmacist.
- ☐ d. You may not market in a pharmacy if you are not a pharmacist.

✔ Correct: Marketing representatives may engage in marketing activities in a retail pharmacy in common areas. In a retail pharmacy, this would be areas away from the pharmacy counter where patients receive services from the pharmacist.

Question 8
Correct

Another agent working for your agency claims that because you are not employed by the Medicare Advantage plans you represent, you are not subject to the same marketing requirements as the plans themselves. How should you respond to such a statement?

- ☒ a. Your coworker is not correct. Marketing on behalf of a plan is considered marketing by the plan and requires that all contracted and employed agents comply with all Medicare marketing rules.
- ☐ b. Your coworker is correct. You are subject only to marketing requirements issued by your state department of insurance.
- ☐ c. Your coworker is correct because employed agents must follow a stricter set of rules than independent agents do, such as yourself.
- ☐ d. Your coworker is correct. You may use any marketing techniques that do not involve providing misinformation to potential enrollees.

✔ Correct: Plan marketing representatives are subject to the same requirements related to marketing and communications as the plans.

Question 9
Correct

During a sales presentation to Ms. Barbosa for a Medicare Advantage plan that has a 5-star rating in customer service and care coordination, and received an overall plan performance rating of a 4-star, which of the following would be the best statement to say to her?

- ☐ a. The Medicare Advantage Plan received the best star rating in customer service and care coordination.
- ☐ b. This Medicare Advantage plan is a 5-star rated plan due to its high rating in customer service.
- ☐ c. The Medicare Advantage plan is a top-rated plan.
- ☒ d. The Medicare Advantage Plan received a 5-star rating in customer service and care coordination with an overall performance rating of 4 stars.

✔ Correct: This references a plan's rating on two individual measures in conjunction with the plan's overall performance rating. Therefore, it is a permissible statement to make to her.

Question 10
Correct

You have set up an appointment for an in-home sales presentation with Mrs. Conway, who expressed interest in the Medicare plans you represent. In preparation for the sales presentation, what must you do?

- ☐ a. Seven days before the appointment, you must notify the company(ies) you represent regarding which products you will be presenting, so they can report on the nature of your meeting to the Medicare agency.
- ☐ b. At the time you arrive at the appointment, let her know which products you will be going over.
- ☒ c. Before conducting the presentation, obtain and document having obtained her permission to visit, along with her interest in the specific products you will present.
- ☐ d. Before arriving at her home, request approval from CMS to use special materials that you developed to explain the benefits of the plan instead of the plan's materials, which you think are confusing.

✔ Correct: Before any marketing appointment, you must identify the types of plans that you will discuss as well as obtain an agreement from her and document such agreement through a scope of appointment.

Question 11
Correct

You will be holding a sales event soon, at which you would like to offer door prizes to attendees. Under guidelines from the Medicare agency, what types of gifts or prizes would not be allowed in this situation?

- ☒ a. Gift cards or gift certificates of $15 or less that can be readily converted to cash.
- ☐ b. Two or more gifts whose combined value does not exceed $15
- ☐ c. A gift card to Starbucks worth $5.
- ☐ d. Gifts of nominal retail value ($15 or less)

✔ Correct: This statement is correct because the question is looking for what is NOT allowed in a sales event situation regarding gifts. Marketing representatives may not offer gifts in the form of cash or that can easily be converted to cash.

Question 12
Correct

You are meeting with Mrs. Hahn in her home. On her scope of appointment form, she asked to discuss Medicare Advantage plans. During the meeting, she asked to discuss a stand-alone prescription drug plan. She is leaving the next day to visit her family for a week in another state, so she needs to decide before she leaves. What must happen before that additional discussion can take place?

- ☐ a. You must refer Mrs. Hahn to another agent for her to be able to engage in such a discussion.
- ☒ b. Since Mrs. Hahn specifically asked that you discuss the stand-alone Part D plan, you may do so, as long as she signs a new scope of appointment form first, indicating that she wants to discuss the Part D plan. Correct: A new or separate scope of appointment identifying the additional lines of business to be discussed is required for you to discuss the stand-alone Part D plan during that same meeting.
- ☐ c. Since Mrs. Hahn is leaving the state, you can immediately present her with information on the prescription drug plan, so she can decide before it is too late.
- ☐ d. You must make a telephone call from a location outside Mrs. Hahn's home to ensure that the discussion of the prescription drug plan can take place.

Question 14
Correct

Agent Julia Horne has recently begun marketing Medicare Advantage and related products aimed at meeting the needs of senior citizens. Client Mary Bean has expressed interest in a Medicare Advantage plan. It is now the beginning of September. If you were in Agent Horne's position, what would you do?

- ☒ a. Inquire whether the client qualifies for a special enrollment period, and if not, solicit an enrollment application once the annual open enrollment election period begins on October 15th. Correct: Unless the client is eligible for a special enrollment period, you are prohibited from soliciting enrollment applications for the following contract year before the start of the annual election period on October 15.
- ☐ b. Tell the client that she cannot speak to her until after open enrollment begins on January 1st of the following year.
- ☐ c. Tell the client that she should also consider non-health products (such as cash value life insurance) to meet some of her health needs and offer to submit a life insurance application to see if client Bean is insurable.
- ☐ d. Solicit and complete the enrollment application in September and wait until the open enrollment date to submit it so that the client does not purchase a plan through another agent.

Question 15
Correct

Rick Ritter is a newly licensed agent appointed with Great USA MA Health Plan. Rick would like to conduct an educational meeting on Medicare and a sales meeting at Wolf Trap, a local resort hotel. Since the hotel also offers business space Rick would also like to conduct private marketing meetings with attendees who express interest in the Medicare Advantage products he represents. How would you advise Rick?

- ☐ a. Rick should first conduct the educational meeting at Wolf Trap in the morning. At the conclusion of the educational meeting, he should inform attendees that he will be conducting a marketing presentation in the hotel that afternoon where scope of appointment (SOA) forms will be available for those interested in discussing their specific situations. These private appointments will need to be scheduled for at least 48 hours following completion of SOAs.
- ☐ b. Rick should first conduct the educational meeting at Wolf Trap and alert attendees that he will be holding a marketing meeting no earlier than 48 hours later at the same hotel.
- ☒ c. Rick should first conduct the educational meeting at Wolf Trap in the morning. At the conclusion of the meeting, he should inform attendees that he will be conducting a marketing meeting in the same hotel that afternoon. Following the marketing presentation, he will be available to conduct personal appointments with individuals who wish to discuss their specific situations. Correct: A marketing event may now be held in the same space after an educational event. Attendees need only to be given ample time to leave. Furthermore, individual marketing meetings may take place after marketing events. Agents no longer have to wait 48 hours after completion of scope of appointment forms a personal marketing appointment. Scope of appointments must simply be completed prior to a personal marketing appointment.
- ☐ d. Rick should first conduct the educational meeting at Wolf Trap and alert attendees that he will be holding a marketing meeting where he will discuss product specifics no earlier than the following day at the same hotel.

Question 16
Correct

You plan to participate in an educational event sponsored by a large regional health care system. One of your colleagues suggests that you do a sales presentation on one of the Medicare Health plans you market and modify it to include information about preventive screening tests showcased at the event. How should you respond to your colleague's suggestion?

- ☐ a. Whether a sales presentation is allowed at this educational event is entirely up to the sponsor of the event.
- ☐ b. You should tell your colleague no, because marketing representatives are not permitted to participate, in any way, in an educational event.
- ☐ c. If your sales presentation includes information that is about healthy living or clinically effective screening exams, you could talk about the Medicare plans in your presentation.
- ☒ d. You should tell your colleague no, because participation in an educational event may not include a sales presentation. Correct: When an event has been advertised as "educational," marketing representatives are prohibited from conducting sales presentations.

Question 17
Correct

A Medicare beneficiary has walked into your office and requested that you sit down with her and discuss her options under the Medicare Advantage program. Before engaging in such a discussion, what should you do?

- ☐ a. Before speaking with the individual, you must inquire as to her eligibility for MA and Part D plans and then complete a scope of appointment form for the plans for which she is eligible.
- ☐ b. You must set an appointment for another time, at least 48 hours from the point when she walked into your office.
- ☐ c. You do not have to do anything. You may proceed with the discussion and enroll the individual if she desires.
- ☒ d. You must have her sign a scope of appointment form, indicating which products she wishes to discuss. You may then proceed with the discussion. Correct: A signed scope of appointment form describing the types of products she wishes to discuss must be completed before you begin your discussion.

Question 18
Correct

You market many different types of insurance and ordinarily you spend time each evening calling potential clients. To comply with requirements for marketing Medicare Advantage and Part D plans, what must you do about contacting potential clients to market those plans?

- ☐ a. As long as you market only health-related products, you can make an initial call to any beneficiary but then must honor "do not call again" requests.
- ☐ b. You only need to comply with the requirements of federal and state "Do Not Call" registries.
- ☒ c. You will have to avoid calling any potential client unless they initiate contact with you and specifically asks that you give them a call. ✓ Correct: Marketing representatives are prohibited from making unsolicited contact with beneficiaries, including through phone calls.
- ☐ d. Because the Medicare health plans are important federal programs for beneficiaries, federal law regarding the "Do Not Call" registry is waived so you will be able to call and enroll beneficiaries over the telephone.

Question 19
Correct

Hernan Hertz is an independent agent. Hernan sells plans on behalf of three Medicare Advantage organizations that offer a total of 10 plans but does not represent all Medicare Advantage organizations offering plans that are available in his area. Which of the following statements best describes any steps Hernan is required to take?

- ☐ a. During the first minute of a sales call, Hernan must send an email to the prospect stating "I represent 3 plans but not every plan available in your area. Please contact Medicare.gov to get information on all your options."
- ☐ b. During the first minute of a sales call, Hernan must use a disclaimer that says "I do not represent every plan available in your area. I represent 3 organizations that offer 10 plans in your area. Please contact Medicare.gov, 1-800-MEDICARE, or your local State Health Insurance Program to get information on all your options."
- ☐ c. Hernan does not need to convey a disclaimer designed to be delivered by a Third-Party Marketing Organization (TPMO) since he is an independent agent.
- ☒ d. Prior to a discussion of any plan benefits, Hernan must use a disclaimer that says "I do not offer every plan available in your area. Currently, I represent 3 organizations which offer 10 plans in your area. Please contact Medicare.gov or 1-800-MEDICARE to get information on all your options." ✓ Correct: Prior to discussion of any plan benefits, not during the first minute, Hernan must deliver the TPMO disclaimer.

Question 20
Correct

One of your colleagues argues that it is better to focus your time and energy exclusively on neighborhoods with single-family homes. He further argues that their older owners are more likely to have higher incomes and purchase the Medicare Advantage products you represent compared to those living in apartment complexes. How should you respond?

- ☐ a. This is not a discriminatory activity since this is merely a widely recommended sales practice.
- ☒ b. This could be considered discriminatory activity and prohibited practice. ✓ Correct: Marketing representatives must not engage in any activity that would be considered discriminatory such as attempting to recruit Medicare beneficiaries from higher-income areas without making comparable efforts to recruit Medicare beneficiaries from lower-income areas.
- ☐ c. This could be considered discriminatory activity, but it is not prohibited practice.
- ☐ d. This is not a discriminatory activity since it is based on the incomes of likely prospects and not based on race or gender.
