Question 3

Correct

Mrs. Fowler is moving and a friend told her she might qualify for a "special election period" to enroll in a new Medicare Advantage plan. She contacted you to ask what a special election period is. What could you tell her?

☒ a. It is a period, outside of the Annual Election Period, when a Medicare beneficiary can select a new or different Medicare Advantage and/or Part D prescription drug plan. Typically, the special election period is beneficiary specific and results from events, such as when the beneficiary moves outside of the service area.

✓ Correct. MA eligible and Part D eligible beneficiaries who experience certain qualifying events, such as a change in residence, are provided a special period to change their election, known as a special election period or "SEP."

☐ b. It is a period when only Medicare beneficiaries who have moved out of the area and are dually eligible for Medicaid may add, drop, or change their prescription drug coverage.

☐ c. It is a period when beneficiaries who are newly eligible for Medicare may make their first choice of a Medicare prescription drug plan.

☐ d. It is a single period from January 1 – March 31, created by statute, when any Medicare beneficiary who has moved out of the area of their Medicare Advantage or Part D plan can add, drop, or change their Medicare prescription drug coverage.

Question 4

Correct

You are visiting Mr. Connor and his daughter at her request. He has advanced Alzheimer's and is incapable of understanding the implications of choosing a Medicare Advantage or prescription drug plan. Can his daughter fill out the enrollment form and sign it for him?

☒ a. Mr. Connor's daughter can do so only if she is authorized under state law as a court-appointed legal guardian, has a durable power of attorney for health care decisions, or is authorized under state surrogate consent laws to make health decisions.

✓ Correct: CMS will permit someone to sign on behalf of a beneficiary if they are a legal representative or individual authorized under state law, such as a court-appointed legal guardian, someone with a durable power of attorney for health care decisions, or someone authorized to make health care decisions under state surrogate consent laws.

☐ b. If the enrollment form is countersigned by one of Mr. Connor's treating physicians, she can sign it for him.

☐ c. Mr. Connor's daughter can do so because she is an immediate family member who has taken responsibility for her father's care.

☐ d. A signature is not necessary since Mr. Connor is not physically or mentally capable of filling out and signing the form.

Question 5

Correct

Mr. Shaffer is currently enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan that includes drug coverage. He found a stand-alone Medicare prescription drug plan in his area that offers better coverage than that available through his MA-PD plan and in addition, has a low premium. It won't cost him much more and, because he has the means to do so, he wishes to enroll in the stand-alone prescription drug plan in addition to his MA-PD plan. What should you tell him?

☒ a. If Mr. Shaffer enrolls in the stand-alone Medicare prescription drug plan, he will be disenrolled from the Medicare Advantage plan.

✓ Correct: When an applicant enrolls in an MA plan, they acknowledge that they understand enrollment in another MA plan, PDP, or MA-PD automatically disenrolls them from their current plan. If Mr. Shaffer enrolls in a standalone PDP, he will be disenrolled from his current MA-PD plan.

☐ b. If Mr. Shaffer wants to enroll in both an MA-PD and a stand-alone PDP, he may buy the extra coverage without any adverse effect.

☐ c. If Mr. Shaffer enrolls in a stand-alone Medicare prescription drug plan, he can request that his Medicare Advantage plan remove the drug benefit from the package they offer and reduce his premium accordingly.

☐ d. Mr. Shaffer will have to wait until the annual election period, beginning October 15, and then he can add the stand-alone coverage to the MA-PD.

Question 6
Correct

Mr. Washington is turning 65 next month and has asked you what he can do, and when he must do it, with respect to enrolling in Part D. What could you tell him?

- ☒ a. He is currently in the Part D Initial Enrollment Period (IEP), and during this time, he may make one Part D enrollment choice, including enrollment in a stand-alone Part D plan or an MA-PD plan. ✓ Correct: He is currently within his Part D IEP, which begins 3 months before the month he meets the eligibility requirements for Part B and ends 3 months after the month of eligibility. During the Part D IEP, beneficiaries may make one Part D enrollment choice, including enrollment in a stand-alone Part D plan or an MA-PD plan if they are eligible for MA.
- ☐ b. He is currently in the Part D Initial Enrollment Period (IEP), and during this time, he may only add stand-alone Medicare prescription drug coverage.
- ☐ c. He is currently in the Part D Initial Enrollment Period (IEP), and during this time, he may only enroll in an MA-PD plan.
- ☐ d. He is currently in the Part D Initial Enrollment Period (IEP), and during this time, he may enroll in a Medigap plan that includes creditable coverage for prescription drugs.

Question 7
Correct

Mr. Blake is enrolled in his employer's group health plan and will be retiring soon. He would like to know his options since he has decided to drop his retiree coverage and is eligible for Medicare. What should you tell him?

- ☐ a. Mr. Blake must convert his current coverage to employer-sponsored retiree coverage and wait one year before enrolling in an MA or Part D plan.
- ☒ b. Mr. Blake can disenroll from his employer-sponsored coverage to elect a Medicare Advantage or Part D plan within 2 months of his disenrollment. ✓ Correct: Individuals disenrolling from employer-sponsored coverage to elect an MA plan have a SEP that ends 2 months after the month the employer-sponsored coverage ends.
- ☐ c. Mr. Blake can disenroll from the employer-sponsored plan, and his only option is to choose a Medigap plan.
- ☐ d. Mr. Blake can disenroll from his employer-sponsored coverage to elect a Medicare Advantage or Part D plan, but he must wait until the next Annual Election Period.

Question 8
Correct

Mrs. Curry enrolled in Original Medicare and Medigap coverage following her retirement several years ago. Four months ago, Mrs. Curry dropped her Medigap policy to enroll in a Medicare Advantage (MA) plan for the first time. Unfortunately, Mrs. Curry has found that many of her providers are not in the MA plan's network. She has come to you for advice. What should you tell her?

- ☐ a. She must wait until the next MA Open Enrollment Period (OEP) during which she can elect to return to Original Medicare.
- ☐ b. She must wait until the next Annual Election Period (AEP) during which she may select another MA plan.
- ☒ c. She qualifies for a special election period (SEP) that will allow her to make a one-time election to return to Original Medicare and she also has a guaranteed eligibility period to rejoin her Medigap plan. ✓ Correct: Individuals who drop their Medigap policy to enroll in a MA plan for the first time are eligible for a Special election period to return to Original Medicare. This SEP also provides them with guaranteed eligibility to rejoin a Medigap plan.
- ☐ d. She qualifies for a special election period (SEP) that will allow her to make a one-time election to return to Original Medicare, but she may or may not qualify to rejoin her Medigap plan based on medical underwriting.

Question 9
Correct

Mr. Khan's employer has recently dropped comprehensive creditable prescription drug coverage that was offered to company retirees. The company told Mr. Khan that, because he was affected by this change, he would qualify for a special election period. Mr. Khan contacted you to find out more about what this means. What can you tell him?

- ☐ a. It means that he will be able to purchase continued drug coverage from the insurer that had provided it to the company retirees, but that he will not have to pay the entire premium himself.
- ☒ b. It means that he qualifies for a one-time opportunity to enroll in a Part D prescription drug plan. ✓ Correct. Beneficiaries eligible for Part D who involuntarily lose creditable prescription drug coverage have a special election period (SEP) allowing them to enroll in a prescription drug plan. During the SEP, he has one opportunity to drop, add, or change his Part D coverage.
- ☐ c. It means that he will be able to enroll in a state-funded pharmacy assistance program for retirees that will cover 80 percent of his drug costs.
- ☐ d. It means that he will have a one-time opportunity to enroll in a Medigap policy with drug coverage.

Question 10
Correct

Mr. Gardner is a very organized individual and has filled out and brought to you an enrollment form on October 10 for a new plan available on January 1 next year. He is currently enrolled in Original Medicare. What should you do?

- ☐ a. Tell Mr. Gardner that you cannot accept an enrollment form for coverage to begin on January 1 of next year before December 15.
- ☐ b. Accept the form and immediately send it to the plan for processing.
- ☐ c. Accept the form and wait until the Annual Election Period begins to send it to the plan for processing.
- ☒ d. Tell Mr. Gardner that you cannot accept any enrollment forms until the annual election period begins. ✓ Correct. You cannot accept enrollment at this juncture. October 10th is before the start of the Annual Election Period (AEP), which begins October 15th and ends December 7th. Marketing representatives may not accept enrollment forms before October 15th for enrollment under the AEP.

Question 11
Correct

Ms. Sutton is enrolled in an MA-PD plan but will be moving out of the plan's service area next month. She is worried that she will not be able to enroll in another plan available in her new residence until the Annual Election Period. What should you tell her?

- ☐ a. She may continue to keep her existing plan, because all Medicare health plans are required to provide coverage to anyone, no matter where they live.
- ☐ b. She will have to wait until the next Annual Election Period to be able to enroll in a plan available in her new location.
- ☐ c. She will be able to enroll in a new plan because she qualifies for a special election period that begins 30 days after a plan's written communications are returned by the United States Postal Service with a notification that the resident has moved. So, she should be sure to notify the Postal Service immediately.
- ☒ d. She is eligible for a special election period (SEP) that begins either the month before her permanent move, if the plan is notified in advance, or the month she provides notice of the move, and this period typically lasts an additional two months. ✓ Correct. Ms. Sutton's move is a change in residence, which makes her eligible for a special election period (SEP) that begins either the month before the move if she gives her plan advanced notice, or the month she provides notice of the move. The SEP continues for two months either after it begins or the month of the move, whichever is later.

Question 12
Correct

Mr. and Mrs. Orozco attended one of your sales presentations. They've asked you to come to their home to clear up a few questions. During the presentation, Mrs. Orozco feels tired and tells you that her husband can finish things up. She goes to bed. At the end of your discussion, Mr. Orozco says that he wants to enroll both himself and his wife. What should you do?

- ☐ a. You should sign the form for Mrs. Orozco yourself, since she informed you, as the plan's representative, that she wanted to enroll.
- ☐ b. You can countersign Mrs. Orozco's application, along with her husband, indicating that she approved this choice verbally. This witness signature is sufficient to make the enrollment valid.
- ☒ c. If she can do so, only Mrs. Orozco can sign her enrollment form. Mrs. Orozco will have to wake up to sign her form or do so at another time.
- ☐ d. Legal spouses can sign enrollment forms for one another under federal law. You may enroll both Mr. and Mrs. Orozco, if her husband signs on her behalf.

✓ Correct: A Medicare beneficiary is generally the only individual who may execute a valid request for enrollment in an MA plan. CMS will allow a legal representative or another individual to execute an enrollment request on behalf of the beneficiary if authorized under state law. Depending on state law, this may include court appointed legal guardians, and individuals with durable power of attorney for health care decisions. A spouse does not automatically fall into these sanctioned categories.

Question 14
Correct

Mrs. Delgado is currently enrolled in Original Medicare (Parts A and B), but she has been working with Agent Hudson in the selection of a Medicare Advantage (MA) plan. It is mid-September, and Mrs. Delgado is going on vacation. Agent Hudson is considering suggesting that he and Mrs. Delgado complete the application together before she leaves. He will then submit the paper application before the start of the annual enrollment period (AEP). What would you say if you were advising Agent Hudson?

- ☒ a. This is a bad idea. Agents are generally prohibited from soliciting or accepting an enrollment form before the start of the AEP.
- ☐ b. This is a good idea. The plan will retain Mrs. Delgado's application and process it when the AEP begins.
- ☐ c. This is a good idea. This locks Mrs. Delgado into a plan and protects Agent Hudson's commission.
- ☐ d. This is a bad idea. Mrs. Delgado should complete an online application now so that Agent Hudson will be given immediate credit for his work once the AEP begins.

✓ Correct: Marketing representatives may not accept enrollment forms before October 15 for enrollments under the Annual Election Period.

Question 15
Correct

Mr. Jerome Summers participated in Original Medicare (Parts A and B) for several years before electing to enroll in a Medicare Savings Account (MSA) Medicare Advantage Plan for the first time on November 1st during the Annual Election Period. Almost immediately thereafter, Mr. Summers contacts you to tell you that he regrets his decision and wants to change his election back to Original Medicare. How would you advise him?

- ☐ a. Mr. Summers must remain with the MA MSA plan until the next annual open enrollment period unless he qualifies for a special enrollment period (SEP).
- ☐ b. Mr. Summers qualifies for special enrollment period (SEP) because he enrolled in an MSA Medicare Advantage plan which is an account-based plan considered a CMS demonstration project.
- ☒ c. Mr. Summers may revoke his election if he does it no later than December 15th of the same year. He is allowed to do this because he has never elected an MA MSA plan.
- ☐ d. Mr. Summers has time to act. He can use the MA Open Enrollment (MA OEP) to disenroll from the MA MSA plan running from January 1 through March 31.

✓ Correct: An individual who elects an MA MSA plan during the AEP and has never elected a MA MSA plan may revoke that election, no later than December 15 of that same year.

Question 19
Correct

Mr. Chambers suffers from diabetes which has gotten progressively worse during the last year. He is currently enrolled in Original Medicare (Parts A and B) and a Part D prescription drug plan and did not enroll in a Medicare Advantage (MA) plan during the last annual open enrollment period (AEP) which has just closed. Mr. Chambers has heard certain MA plans might provide him with more specialized coverage for his diabetes and wants to know if he must wait until the next annual open enrollment period (AEP) before enrolling in such a plan. What should you tell him?

- ☒ a. If there is a special needs plan (SNP) in Mr. Chambers's area that specializes in caring for individuals with diabetes, he may enroll in the SNP at any time under a special election period (SEP).
 - ☐ b. Because of the severity of his condition, Mr. Chambers must remain enrolled in Original Medicare and enroll in a Medigap plan to supplement his additional medical needs.
 - ☐ c. Mr. Chambers must wait until the next annual open enrollment period (AEP) before he can enroll in a special needs plan (SNP).
 - ☐ d. If there is a special needs plan (SNP) in Mr. Chambers' area that specializes in caring for individuals with diabetes, he may enroll in the SNP during the MA Open Enrollment Period which takes place between January 1 and March 31.
- ✔ Correct. Beneficiaries who have severe or disabling chronic conditions and wish to enroll in a SNP designed to serve individuals with their specific condition have a SEP during which they can enroll in an SNP designed to serve individuals with their condition. The SEP lasts if the individual has the qualifying condition and ends once the individual enrolls in a C-SNP.

Question 20
Correct

Mrs. Farmer would like to enroll in a Medicare Cost plan that offers Part D prescription drug coverage. She is coming to you for advice about when she can enroll in a plan you have previously discussed. What should you tell her?

- ☒ a. Enrollment in Cost plans offering Part D coverage is available only during enrollment periods under the Part D program, and Cost plans must accept enrollments during these periods.
 - ☐ b. Enrollment in Cost plans offering Part D prescription drug coverage is not necessary because Cost plans offer more generous Part B benefits.
 - ☐ c. Enrollment in Cost plans offering Part D coverage is generally available only 30 days per year, because of the more generous benefits of these plans.
 - ☐ d. Enrollment in Cost plans offering Part D coverage is generally available year-round, so she can immediately enroll and have prescription drug coverage.
- ✔ Correct: Cost plans offering Part D coverage may only make this benefit available during the enrollment periods available under the Part D program, and they are required to accept Part D enrollments during these periods.
